

Meeting Notice

Structural Engineering Software Developments

Please join us for a two part presentation about developments in structural engineering software. Our speakers will be Brian Armour and Kurt Krasavage from CSC. The first section will discuss the ways that BIM (Building Information Modeling) is revolutionizing the way structural engineers work. It will also cover the benefits and challenges involved with the structural BIM process, including design integration, drawing production and project collaboration. The second section will cover the increasing productivity gains that software can bring, including calculation confidence and control. Brian and Kurt will show how software can be a great investment and essential part of design.
